

4W

Women
Well-being
Wisconsin
World

VOICES OF HOPE

Listening to and Supporting Survivors of Human Trafficking

JULY 15TH- 7PM- NANCY NICHOLAS HALL

RECEPTION BEGINS AT 6:30 PM

Shamere McKenzie Keynote Speaker

Christine Stark Discussant

Christine Stark is an award-winning writer, visual artist, national and international speaker of Anishinaabe & Cherokee ancestry.

Shamere McKenzie tells the inspiring story of a woman who survived a fate that is all too prevalent in the United States – sex trafficking. Shamere has become an activist and international speaker, giving a voice to enslaved women and children and survivors who suffer in silence, afraid to share their stories.

Rebecca Bender Discussant

Rebecca Bender is a Survivor Leader and Advocate in the efforts to eradicate modern day slavery. Rebecca is a well sought after conference presenter and keynote at some of the largest anti-trafficking events in the country, including President Jimmy Carter's World Summit.

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

UW STREETS-Social Transformations to End Exploitation and Trafficking for Sex

Global Health Institute
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

DEPARTMENT OF
GENDER AND WOMEN'S STUDIES

University of Wisconsin-Madison

School of Human Ecology
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON